

N. Kerbin - A Boy And a Man And a Satellite

```
tom:
                                                             {\sf C} (forma dos acordes no tom de {\sf G} )
Capostraste na 5ª casa
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Never say good night, I never told him
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  E B2
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 I can?t walk this road all on my own

E B2 C E F

Don?t go inside, don?t leave me
                                           С
                                                                     E F
F B2
A boy and a man in a backyard E B2 C E
       Working on a fastball, throwing hard
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Humid nights dripping through my Virginian heart

E
B
F
Comparety park
      B2 C E F
Came in high and a little bit outside
B2 C E
      If it never gets dark we?ll never go inside
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Another night under the lights of an empty park
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      E G F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Long walk from the gate through the parking lot
                          B2 C
      Number 45 on the mound takes the sign B2 C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 E B2 C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Another night, not nearly as dark as I?d thought
       Checks the runner on the third working down the line
              B2 C E F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  (DF)
    Holds his breath and closes his eyes
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     E F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   C
              B2 C
      If the game never ends we?ll never go inside
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Old man all alone in a backyard
B2 C
E B2 C E F
Never say goodbye to this moment
E B2 C E F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Watching satellites spin, thinking they?re stars
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       B2 C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Does that boy ever think about my life?
Never say good night, I never told him E B2 C E F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                B2 C E F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         If you ever knew, you?d never go inside
I can?t walk this road all on my own

B2

C

E

F

Don?t go inside, don?t leave me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Never say good night, I never told him E B2 C E F
A boy and a dog in a backyard
                                                                                                                             Е
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  I can?t walk this road all on my own

B2

C

E

F
                      B2
                                                                      С
      Watching satellites spin from the trunk of the old man?s car % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) \left( 1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 F B2
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Don?t go inside, don?t leave me
              B2 C E F
      Takes a breath and closes his eyes B2 C
      If I never shut the door we?ll never go inside
 Acordes
                      Ε
                                                                                                                                                ukulele-chords.com
```