

Napkin - Tragedy

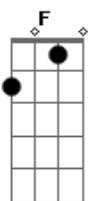

tom:
Dm
I like to remember those things that I loved
F C Eb Bb
That song, that perfume, that empty chair
F C Eb Bb
Those unlit candles and all those endless hugs
F C Eb Bb Dm
But what could I think about it
Dm
If you can't stop looking at me
Dm F C
Just feel me breathing now
Dm
The air that fills my dry lungs
Dm F C
That makes me drop the sound
Dm Bb
More than I can explain it, the other way around
Bb
Because I think somehow
F
You know you should be waiting for me 'til now
Dm C
You wanna be strong, you wanna be brave
Bb F
But now is your chance, but now this is your last time
Dm C
You wanna believe that you have a plan
Bb F
But you can't scape, you're living a tragedy
Dm F

Do not try to find yourself, but look on the bright side
Dm
If you're walking in the darkness
F
Someone will bring you light
Dm
Cause now if you could hear me
Bb
I will get back tonight
Bb
Because I think somehow
F
You know you should be waiting for me 'til now
Dm C
You wanna be strong, you wanna be brave
Bb F
But now is your chance, but now this is your last time
Dm C
You wanna believe that you have a plan
Bb F
But you can't scape, you're living a tragedy
Gm Bb Dm
Just keep following your course
C
Whatever that happens
Gm Bb
Look back to fix your mistakes
Dm C
You wanna be strong, you wanna be brave
Bb F
But now is your chance, but now this is your last time
Dm C
You wanna believe that you have a plan
Bb F
But you can't scape, you're living a tragedy
