

Nat King Cole - Ballerina

Tom: D

D Em7 A7 Em D D
Dance, ballerina, dance,
D A7 D G Cdim Em7 A7 Em7 A7
And do your pirouette in rhythm with your aching heart.
Em B Em7 Em
Dance, ballerina, dance,
Em B Em7 Em Em7 A7 D A7
You musn't once forget a dancer has to dance the part.
D Em7 A7 Em D D
Whirl, ballerina, whirl,
D A7 D G Cdim Em7 A7 Em7 A7
And just ignore the chair that's empty in the second row.
Em B Em7 Em
This is your moment, girl,
Em B Em7 Em Em7 A7 D
Although he's not out there applauding as you steal the show.

Once you said, "His love must wait it's turn."
Bm B7 B Em B E7 Em7
You wanted fame instead; I guess that's your concern
G A7
We live and learn.
D Em7 A7 Em D D
And love is gone, ballerina, gone,
D A7 D G Cdim Em7 A7 Em7 A7
So on with your career you can't afford a backward glance.
Em B Em7 Em
Dance on and on and on;
Em B Em7 Em
A thousand people here have come to see the show
Em7 A7
As round and round you go,
G A7 D Am7 D
So ballerina dance, dance, dance.
