

Natalia Lacunza - Another Stupid Love Song

Tom: C

I know you won't C listen to my words G
Cause you don't Em want to C
Cause you don't C need to Em
You have it Em all C
You're in control

We still don't G know what's going on D
We could be falling or this could be Em
Just another stupid love song

As the clocks Em keep turning C
We're still pretending G
It's all part of the game Em
But tell me what would happen C

If we saw each other G
In another D life Em
In another D place Em
Would it hurt?

Maybe not C
Maybe we would just forget G
The little pieces that we kept D
Hiding in our minds

I try to find now where's the line Em
That spares the laws C
Of space and time G
That's filling in this heart of mine D
That somehow joins the truth of life G C G C
The truth of life
