Tom: G

G
Standing on a corner in downtown L.A.,
C waiting for the man to come along.

F
She comes up to me and says, "too bad, too sad",
C
you know that he's been dead and gone.

D
L.A. 'lady, kinda shady, she picked him up and took him (home.)

F
I woke up groggy, my sight was smoggy,
C
and I knew that it had been blown.

F
Early in the morning, sitting in a hotel,
C
Moscow's looking fine through the wine.

F
Spaced out I crashed out,
C
when the K.G.B. came on my line.

D
It's a cold one, being sent down, it's gotta be fifty be(low).

G
Mama, here's a postcard to let you know,
C
I'm in a saltmine and looking for coal.
