

Neck Deep - Candour

Tom: A

m

Intro:

Yesterday saw you missing
 Drawn to the light in the distance
 Holding her hand while she listened
 She told him how much she would miss him
 Said his goodbyes to his children
 And let the weight fade away

Am
 I have your hands
 But I have my mother's eyes F
 Your tact and poise C
 And her sense of wrong and right G
 Heard you awake in the middle of the night Am
 Letting go of the things you keep inside

Worked your fingers to the bone F
 To be sent home with a cardboard box C
 Filled with everything you've known G
 All things come to be loved and lost Am
 I'll keep a moment sealed in time inside a picture frame

F
 A small reminder of the days I thought would never change
C They always say it's clear to see G

How parts of you shine through in me
Am I think you know, you won't be here forever F
 And you're counting down the days C
 'Til you can rest your tired eyes and let it slip away G F~

F The lessons learned at your side G
 Will stay with me all my life Am
 The man I hope to become, I know is deep down inside C
F I know, you don't even need to say G Am
 I know you're proud in your own way C
F G Am I know you're proud in your own way C

(F G Am C)

And you watched me grow up F
 As I watched you grow older G
 The chip off your block, held me up on your shoulders Am C
F I wish I told you yesterday G Am
