

Neil Young - Bound For Glory

Tom: G

(intro strummin) G

Out on the Trans-Canada highway

there was a girl hitchhikin' with a dog C fireflies buzzin' 'round her head D

like candles in a fog G

He was three miles down the road tryin' to stay up but he knew that he couldn't C

she was looking for a ride through the night D

but out there who wouldn't G

There were bound for glory, bound for livin' on the edge Am

they were bound for each other D

like two comets headin' for a bed G

She had a new way of livin', new way of lookin' at life Am

he had an '84 International and two kids D

he left back home with his wife C G

(waylon sings-same chords)

He was tired of writing letters to himself and living in the dark

She was open to suggestions

and some say she had a broken heart

He had everything he wanted till it all turned out to be a job

One fallen asleep trucker and a girl hitchhikin' with a dog (same as previous chorus)

There were bound for glory, bound for livin' on the edge they were bound for each other, like two comets headin' for a bed

She had a new way of livin', new way of lookin' at life he had an '84 International and two kids

he left back home with his wife

(Go up a full step to A)

Out on the Trans-Canada highway

the sun cam climbin' up the cab D

by the time it hit the window E

they were waking up from what little sleep they had A

When that heat hit the blankets

They were looking for love at second sight D

Just starin' in each other's eyes E findin' it in the morning light A

There were bound for glory, bound for livin' on the edge Bm

they were bound for each other, E

like two blankets laying on a bed A

She had a new way of livin', new way of lookin' at life Bm

he had an '84 International and two kids E
