

Neil Young - Campaigner

Tom: D
Intro:
D
I am a lonely visitor.
G
I came to late to cause a stir,
D
Though I campaigned all my life towards that goal.
G
I hardly slept the night you wept
Bm
Our secret's safe and still well kept
A
Where even Richard Nixon has got soul.
G A "Bm G Bm E" - See Below
Even Richard Nixon has got soul.
Traffic cops are all color blind.
G
People steal from their own kind.
D Bm Bm G
Evening comes to early for a stroll.
G
Down neon streets the streaker streaks.
Bm
The speaker speaks, but the truth still leaks,
A
Where even Richard Nixon has got soul.
G A "Bm G Bm E" - See Below
Even Richard Nixon has got it, soul.
Podium rocks in the crowded waves
G
The speaker talks of the beautiful saves
D Bm Bm G
That went down long before he played this role

G Gb7
For the hotel queens and the magazines,
Bm Bm
Test tube genes and slot machines
A Bm
Where even Richard Nixon has got soul.
G A "Bm G Bm E" - See Below
Even Richard Nixon has got it, soul.
D
Hospitals have made him cry
G
But there's always a free way in his eye,
D Bm Bm G
Though his beach just got to crowded for his stroll.
G Gb7
Roads stretch out like healthy veins,
Bm Bm
And wild gift horses strain the reins,
A Bm
Where even Richard Nixon has got soul.
G A "Bm G Bm E" - See Below
Even Richard Nixon has got soul.
D
I am a lonely visitor.
G
I came to late to cause a stir,
D Bm G
Though I campaigned all my life towards that goal.
