Neil Young - Hangin' On a Limb

```
Tom: G
Intro: . (D D D  G   C G  D D D )   x2

D                        G
Though the river flows / Gently to the sea
C            G        D
He was on the shore / Rooted like a tree
D                       G
She was here and there / Riding on the waves
C                    G                      D
Through it all she heard his call / And gave it all she gave.

A
And though their love
     G
was hangin' on a limb
     D                    Em D        G
She taught him how to dance . . . and start again
A
And though their love
     G
was hangin' on a limb
     D                    Em D   G    A
She taught him how to dance.

(Solo) x2

     D      D D       G                 C        G        D
D D

D                       G
And when the melody / Through the window called
     C            G              D
It echoed in the courtyard / And whispered in the halls
```

```
     D                             G
He played it through the night / She knew he had to go
           C               G            D
There was something about freedom / He thought he didn't know.

A
And though their love
     G
was hangin' on a limb
     D                    Em D        G
She taught him how to dance . . . and start again
A
And though their love
     G
was hangin' on a limb
     D                    Em D  G    A
She taught him how to dance.

(solo) x2

D                       G
Though the river flowed / Gently to the sea
     C            G        D
He was on the shore / Rooted like a tree
     D                   G
She was here and there / Riding on the waves
     C            G                    D
Through it all she heard his call / And gave it all she gave.

A
And though their love
     G
was hangin' on a limb
     D                    Em D      G               G
She taught him how to dance . . . and start again
```

Acordes