Intro: A2

A Well, I used to drive a cab, you know C

C I heard a siren scream

D Pulled over to the corner

C And I fell into a dream A2

A There were two men eating pennies

C And three young girls who cried

D The West coast is falling,

C I see rocks in the sky. A2

E7 The preacher took his bible
 And laid it on the stool.

D He said: with the congregation running,
 C Why should I play the fool? A2 A A2 A

Well, I used to be a woman, you know

C I took you for a ride,

D I let you fly my airplane

C It looked good for your pride. A

'Cause you're the kind of man you know

C Who likes what he says.

D I wonder what's it's like

C To be so far over my head. A

E7 Well, the lady made the wedding
 And she brought along the ring.

D She got down on her knees

C And said: Let's get on with this thing. A2 A7

Well, I used to be a folk singer

C Keeping managers alive,

D When you saw me on a corner

C And told me I was jive. A7

So I unlocked your mind, you know

C To see what I could see.

D If you guarantee the postage,

C I'll mail you back the key. A7

E7

Well I woke up in the morning
 With an arrow through my nose

D There was an Indian in the corner D
 C Tryin' on my clothes. A2 Em A2 Em

A Well, I used to be asleep you know

C With blankets on my bed.

D I stayed there for a while

C 'Til they discovered I was dead. A2 A

The coroner was friendly

C And I liked him quite a lot.

D If I hadn't 've been a woman

C I guess I'd never have been caught. A2

E7 They gave me back my house and car

A2 And nothing more was said. A

Well, I was driving down the freeway

C When my car ran out of gas.

D Pulled over to the station

C But I was afraid to ask. A

The servicemen were yellow

C And the gasoline was green.

D Although I knew I couldn't

C I thought that I was gonna scream. A

E7 That was on my last trip to Tulsa
 Just before the snow.

D If you ever need a ride there,

C Be sure to let me know. A2 Em x4 A2

A I was chopping down a palm tree

C When a friend dropped by to ask

D If I would feel less lonely

C If he helped me swing the axe. A2

A I said: No, it's not a case of being lonely

C We have here,

D I've been working on this palm tree

C For eighty seven years C A A2 A A2 A A2 A

C I said: No, it's not a case of being lonely

D We have here,

C I've been working on this palm tree

C For eighty seven years A7

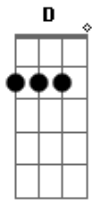

E7 He said: Go get lost!

And walked towards his Cadillac.

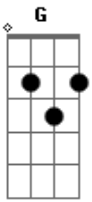

D
I chopped down the D palm tree

C
And it landed on his back.
