

Nick Jonas - Gut Punch

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I think my hair stopped growing, is that even a thing?
 Haven't lost any of it, but something ain't the same
 Maybe it's a metaphor, is it even that deep?
 I think my hair stopped growing, or is it me?
 I called Phil a couple times, he's probably sick of me
 He said, "Go easy on yourself," but what does that even mean?
 Sounds like good advice, but I just can't hear it right now

[Refrão]

Hit me like a gut punch, I hurt my own feelings
 How did I get so good at being mean to myself?
 I should turn the heat down, tell myself to chill out
 Damn, I really hate the way I talk to myself

[Post-Refrão]

Hit me like a
 Hit me like a

[Segunda Parte]

When the hell did I start trying to be perfect?
 And people-pleasing, is it ever really worth it?
 Fake-smiling just to pass the time
 It's the only way I've been getting by
 Looked at myself and I can't even recognize

Who I am behind those eyes, one big disguise

[Refrão]

Hit me like a gut punch, I hurt my own feelings
 How did I get so good at being mean to myself?
 I should turn the heat down, tell myself to chill out
 Damn, I really hate the way I talk to myself

[Post-Refrão]

Hit me like a

[Ponte]

Now, what would it be like if I just tried being nice
 To the person that I'm seeing in the mirror? Yeah
 If you find that inner child
 Haven't seen him for a while

Let him know he's doing fine

[Refrão]

Hit me like a gut punch, I hurt my own feelings
 How did I get so good at being mean to myself?
 I should turn the heat down, tell myself to chill out
 Damn, I really hate the way I talk to myself

[Final]

Hit me like a
 Yeah-yeah, oh-oh, yeah
 Hit me like a gut punch
 Oh-oh-oh, yeah
