Father, tell me somethin'
Bb C
Where do bad men go when they die?
G A Bb
And mother says you'll go there but
C G A
Wings for her and I and I don't mind
Bb C
Cause I have always wanted to learn to...

G A
Fly... learn to
G A
Fly... learn to
G A
Fly... learn to
Bb C Fly...

G A
Brother, tell me somethin'
Bb C
If I take this, am I going to die?
G A Bb C
And he says no, so then I figure what the hell
G A
I'll try cause it's my life
Bb C
So light the match and you and I will...

G A
Fly... learn to
G A
Fly... learn to
G A
Fly... learn to
Bb C Fly...

G A Bb C
Cause I'm on my hands and knees I've crawled eternity to begforgiveness
G A Bb C
And someday I'll be there I swear to you, God, as my witness
G A Bb C
For all the trusts I've broke and, let justice know, it's justthat easy
G A Bb C
Cause I'm a liar, I conspired, I'm a liar...
G A Bb C

G A
And father tell your son,
Bb C
It's not your gun and bloody hands
G A
Don't hide behind locked doors
Bb C
In dresser drawers those bullets wait to fly...

G A
Fly... learn to
G A
Fly... learn to
G A
Fly... learn to
Bb C Fly...

G A Bb C
Cause I'm on my hands and knees I've crawled eternity to begforgiveness
G A Bb C
And someday I'll be there I swear to you, God, as my witness
G A Bb C
For all the trusts I've broke and, let justice know, it's justthat easy
G A Bb C
Cause I'm a liar, I conspired, I'm a liar...
