Intro: C Em Am F
C Em Am F
                                                                Like the air that I breathe
                                                                Like a candle in the dark
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                You're all that I need
                                                                I need it all the time
It's time to say that you're living in my heart
My eyes cannot fake and I cannot hide
                                                                My dream is a mountain
What have you done?
                                                                That I have to climb
Did you steal my mind?
                                                                Every time along my life
     Am F
Am r
What am I feeling inside?
                                                                [Refrão]
Like the air that I breathe
                                                                All the stars
                                                                Of the sky
Like a candle in the dark
                                                                      Em
                                                                Can appear inside your eyes
You're all that I need
                                                                All those magic feelings that
I need it all the time
                                                                I am feeling by your side
My dream is a mountain
                                                                Can translate all the love
That I have to climb
                                                                      Em
                                                                By the beating of my heart
      Am
Every time along my life
                                                                That's the reason why I want you
[Refrão]
                                                                To be in every step of my life
All the stars
                                                                All the stars
Of the sky
                                                                Of the sky
    Em
Can appear inside your eyes
                                                                Can appear inside your eyes
All those magic feelings that
                                                                All those magic feelings that
I am feeling by your side
                                                                I am feeling by your side
        C
Can translate all the love
                                                                Can translate all the love
By the beating of my heart
