

Nirvana - Dumb

```
Tom: Eb
                                                            Fall asleep
                                                            Wish away
                                           D )
(com acordes na forma de Capostraste na 1º casa
                                                            the soul is cheap
  Im not like them
                                                            Lesson learned
 Bb
         D
                                                            Wish me luck
but i can pretend
the sun is gone
                                                            Soothe the burn
  Bb
                                                            Wake me up
but i have a light (pausa breve)
the day is done
Bb
but im having fun
                                                              Im not like them
                                                              Bb
                                                                         D
I think im dumb
                                                             but i can pretend
                                                             the sun is gone
 Or maybe just happy
                                                              Bb
               D
Think im just happy
                                                             but i have a light
Think im just happy
                                                             the day is done
               D
                                                             Bb
Think im just happy
                                                             but im having fun
G F
  D G
                                                             I think im dumb
 My heart is broke
     D
                                                              Or maybe just happy
but i have some glue
                                                             Think im just happy
Help me inhale
     Bb
                                                             Think im just happy
and mend it with you
                                                                            D
                                                             Think im just happy
We'll float around
 Bb
             D
                                                             D G
And hang out on clouds
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
 G
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
then well come down
Bb
           D
and have a hangover
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
           D
have a hangover
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
                                                             G
             D
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
have a hangover
             D F
                                                             Bb
have a hangover
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
                                                             G
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
Skin the sun
                                                              Bb
                                                            I Think I'm dumb
```

Acordes

