

No-Man - All Sweet Things

Tom: C

C
The run-down streets, the civil wars
G Am you don't go there anymore
G F C it's how you used to live

C
the trampled hopes, the made-up laws
G Am the itchy feet, the pub quiz bores
G F Dm C it's so hard to forgive

C Em Dm G
all sweet things
C Em
all sweet things will come again
Dm G
all sweet things come again

weekend slimmers count their chains
G Am still wanting someone else to blame
G F C you watch them come and go

empty nightclub escapades
G Am they tell you more than words can say G F Dm C that open doors get closed

C Em Dm G
all sweet things
C Em
all sweet things will come again

Dm G
all sweet things come again

Am F Am F
the empty rooms, the empty house
G Am someday soon you'll work it out
G F C still finding the way back home

the schoolyard ghosts, the playtime fears G Am you take your pills they disappear
G F Dm C the people that you've known

Am.....F.....Am.....F.....
Am F all sweet things
Am F all sweet things will come
Am F all sweet things
Am F all sweet things will come

Am.....F.....Am.....F
Am
when the heartbeat slows
F all sweet things
when the silence grows
Am
when the heartbeat slows
F all sweet things will come
when the silence grows
