Eb

To someone

(same as above)
So walk with me on this new spring morning
I'll walk with you, till your fears are none

I'm a new baby weeping at the flower you're keeping
That without love, it'll wilt and die

I need your life in my life (2x)
I need your life

So come back to me
my darling

I'd do anything to be at your side
I'd be anyone to be at your side

I need your life in my life (2x)
I need your life
