

Noah Garner - What Is Heaven Like?

tom:
Intro: Db Gb Ab Db

Ten years and I ain't got a phone call
Ten years, we ain't shared a beer
I can't believe that it's been that long
Ten years since you've been gone

Now everybody says that I look just like you
That's good by me cause I always wanted to

So, daddy, what is Heaven like?
Is it really just beyond where the sun shines?
Is it like the good book says?
Do you hear the prayers me and momma send?
Do you think I'll make it up there so I can see you again?

Man, Since you left you've never left my mind
So, daddy, what is Heaven like?

I've gotta girl now
That i really think you would like her
Cause you always knew just how to pick em out
You know the crazy thing is she says when she looks at me
She sees a love like you and momma had

So, daddy, what is Heaven like?
Is it really just beyond where the sun shines?
Is it like the good book says?
Do you hear the prayers me and momma send?
Do you think I'll make it up there so I can see you again?

Man, since you left you've never left my mind
So, daddy, what is Heaven like?

[Solo] Db Gb Ab Db

I just hope and pray, that there comes a day
When I have a son of my own
Cause if I'm half the man, that you taught me to be
Then I know I'll have a damn good one

So, daddy, what is Heaven like?
Is it really just beyond where the sun shines?
Is it like the good book says?
Do you hear the prayers me and momma send?
Do you think I'll make it up there so I can see you again?

Man, since you left you've never left my mind
I hope it's nice there on the other side
So, daddy, what is Heaven like?
