

Noah Kahan - Come Over

tom:

E

[Primeira Parte]

^E I'm in the business of ^B losin' your interest
^A And I turn a profit each time that we speak
^E Don't you know there's a coffin buried under the garden
^A It was there when we got here, will be there when we leave
^E And my house was designed to kinda look like its cryin'
^A The eyes are the windows, the garage is the mouth
^E So when they mention th? sad kid
^B In a sad house on Balch street
^A You won't have to guess who th?y speakin' about

[Refrão]

^E ^B ^A
 Come over
^E ^B ^A
 Come over

[Segunda Parte]

^E I'm in the process of ^B clearin' out cobwebs
^A I was takin' the wrong meds, feels good to be sad
^E And my house is just barely big enough for my family
^A But it feels like a fortress when the weather gets bad

Acordes

^E And my mouth was designed for my ^B foot to fit in it
^A Oh, the words, they went missin' when the stock market crashed
^E And the Dow Jones keeps fallin', but I promise you, darlin'
^A With the view in the morning, you won't ever go back

[Refrão]

^E ^B ^A
 Come over
^E ^B ^A
 Come over
^E ^B ^A
 Come over
^E ^B ^A
 Come over

[Ponte]

^E I know that it ain't much, I know that it ain't cool
^E Oh, you don't have to tell the other kids at school
^{Dbm} My dad'll strike it rich, we'll be the big house on the block
^E Someday I'm gonna be somebody people want

[Final]

^E I'm in the business of ^B losin' your interest
^A And I turn a profit each time that we speak
^E Don't you know there's a coffin buried under the garden
^A It was there when we got here, will be there when we leave
