[Verse 1]

I grew up pretendin' sticks were

Little guns

I would point 'em at my dad, and

He'd get mad

'Cause God forbid I hurt someone

I'd hurt anyone I could

Anyone who got too close, and anyone

Who wouldn't look

I was born into a one-hundred-year

Storm

Foot of ice across Vermont

And in that dark, and in that frost

A heart was formed

Malcontented and unwarm

You were unsuspectin', not unwarned

[Chorus]

That I'm the trouble ahead, that I

Scream in my sleep

You're puttin' money on red, I'm a

Sure bet at a losin' streak

I keep showin' you doors, but you

Can't open them up

'Cause it g?ts harder to see me the

Clos?r you try to look

[Post-Chorus]

I just live here, babe, but you're

The one who decided to knock

You knocked

[Verse 2]

Have you ever stared directly at the Sun?

Have you ever shared some closeness

So exposed

To have it spit back by someone?

So, forgive me if I jump

At the rattle of your keys

Am

"Oh, are you leavin'?", "No, babe

I'm just wakin' up"

And now what?

I'm left starin' at the ceilin'

Listin' reasons you should pack

All your shit up

[Chorus]

That I'm the trouble ahead, that I

Scream in my sleep

You're puttin' money on red, I'm a

Sure bet at a losin' streak

I keep showin' you doors, but you

Can't open them up

'Cause it g?ts harder to see me the

Clos?r you try to look

[Post-Chorus]

I just live here, babe, but you're

The one who decided to knock

You knocked

C F C F G Am

[Bridge]

I'll be gone so long before the Anger comes

I'll be only what you've known of me

'Til now

Oh, how I hope you're moving on

[Chorus]

'Cause I'm the trouble ahead, and I

Scream in my sleep

You're puttin' money on red, I'm a

Sure bet at a losin' streak

I keep showin' you doors, but you

Can't open them up

'Cause it g?ts harder to see me the

Clos?r you try to look

[Post-Chorus]

I just live here, babe, but you're The one

I just live here, babe, but you're The one

I just live here, babe, but you're The one
