

Noah Kahan - Forever

tom:
C

C Am
Let's drive for no reason, let's see where these wheels land
C Em
Let's grind down the curve of this earth
C F
You look fine in the evening, honey, it's starting to storm
C Am
When we kissed in the car in the school parking lot
C Em
Where I'd go with my friends to get drunk
C Am F
Used to wish I meant anything to anywhere, to anyone

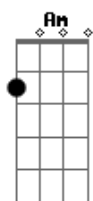

C Am F
When forever was a sentence, sentence to death
Am Em
Oh, when you were a running tear, I was a drop of sweat
C F
And, the edges of your soul, I haven't seen yet
Am Em
Now I'm glad I get forever to see where you end

F C
I won't be alone for the rest of my life
Am Am
I'll build a boat for when the river gets high
F C
And I'll meet a girl in the heat of July
Am Am
And I'll tell her so she knows
F C
That I'm broke, but I'm real rich in my head
Am Am
That I broke a bone that never healed in my hand
F
So, when I hold her close
C Am Am
I might loosen my grip, but I won't ever let her go
Am Am
I won't ever let her go

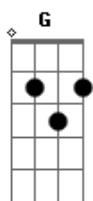

Woo

Ooh-ooh, ooh

(C Am G)

C Am G
Remember when we called the cops
C Am
'Cause I got too high, and you got scared
C Am G
And the cops just laughed?
C Am G
We can't make rent, so we window-shop
C Am G Am
In the Upper West Side, oh, my God
Could you imagine that?

F C
I won't be alone for the rest of my life
Am Am
I'll build a boat for when the river gets high
F C
And I'll meet a girl in the heat of July
Am Am
And I'll tell her so she knows
F C
That I'm broke, but I'm real rich in my head
Am Am
That I broke a bone that never healed in my hand
F
So, when I hold her close
C Am Am
I might loosen my grip, but I won't ever let her go
Am Am
I won't ever let her go

C Am F
When forever was a sentence, sentence to death
Am Em
Oh, when you were a running tear, I was a drop of sweat
C Am F
And, the edges of your soul, I haven't seen yet
Am Em
Now I'm glad I get forever to see where you end
Em
To see where you end
