

Noah Kahan - Glue Myself Shut

tom:
Capostrate na 6ª casa

You used to be scared of the water
You're safe by the side of your father
Your sense of the world lay
In your little home by the harbor

You've always felt small in the city
You think that last fall you were with me
And all of your old clothes
Are still in the hall of my building

You never asked once
No, you never asked why
If I was putting things off
If I was drinking too much of that red wine
Oh, you'd wear yourself thin
And accept every sin
And if I glued myself shut
You would find your way in

We gambled our souls to the summer
And rattled our bones to the thunder
We watched every sunset
Until we got sick of each other
You've always said fall was your season
That everyone's here for a reason
I stare at your packed bags

And ask what the hell you were meaning
You never asked once
No, you never asked why
If I was putting things off
If I was drinking too much of that red wine
Oh, you'd wear yourself thin
And accept every sin
And if I glued myself shut
You would find your way in
(Am C G D7 Dm)

It only feels real after raining
And hearts only heal after breaking
I stare at the tree line
And notice the leaves aren't changing
And does the wind blow in Cape Elizabeth
Constant and cold, how do we live with this?
Love was a deadline
I'll spend the rest of my life fucking missing it
(Dm D7)

You never asked once
No, you never asked why
If I was putting things off
If I was drinking too much of that red wine
Oh, you'd wear yourself thin
And accept every sin
And if I glued myself shut
