

Noah Kahan - Growing Sideways

tom:

G

So I took my medication and I poured my trauma out

C

On some sad-eyed middle aged man's overpriced new leather couch

Em

And we argued about Jesus, finally found some middle ground

C

I said, "I'm cured"

G

And I divvied up my anger into thirty separate parts

C

Keep the bad shit in my liver and the rest around my heart

Em

I'm still angry at my parents for what their parents did to them

C

But it's a start

Em

But I ignore things, and I move sideways

C

Until I forget what I felt in the first place

C

At the end of the day I know there are worse ways

D D D

To stay alive

Em

'Cause everyone's growing and everyone's healthy

C

I'm terrified that I might never have met me

C

Oh, if my engine works perfect on empty

D

I guess I'll drive

G

I guess I'll drive

G

So I forgot my medication, fell into a manic high

C

Spent my savings at a Lulu, now I'm suffering in style

Em

Why's pain so damn impatient? Ain't like it's got a place to be

C

Keeps rushing me

But I ignore things, and I move sideways

C

Until I forget what I felt in the first place

C

At the end of the day I know there are worse ways

D D D

To stay alive

Em

'Cause everyone's growing and everyone's healthy

C

I'm terrified that I might never have met me

C

Oh, if my engine works perfect on empty

D D

I guess I'll drive

C

And if all my life was wasted

Em

I don't mind, I'll watch it go

C

Yeah, it's better to die numb

D D D

Than feel it all

C

Oh, if all my time was wasted

Em

I don't mind, I'll watch it go

C

Yeah, it's better to die numb

D D D

Than feel it all

Em

But I ignore things, and I move sideways

C

Until I forget what I felt in the first place

C

At the end of the day lord there are worse ways

D D

To stay alive

Em

'Cause everyone's growing and everyone's healthy

C

I'm terrified that I might never have met me

C

Oh, if my engine works perfect on empty

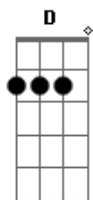

D

I guess I'll drive

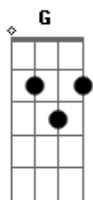

G

I guess I'll drive
