A7M

Mmm-mmm-m

Mmm-mmm-m

[Verse 1]

E

Tell me, lover

Now that you made your change

Was your soul rediscovered?

Was your heart rearranged?

A7M

Are you?still?taking pills in?the morning?

And did you lose that?longing now?

For a walk through an ocean town

'Cause this town's?just?an?ocean now

[Verse 2]

E

You don't?hate the summers

You're?just afraid of the space

Asking strangers for answers

To forget what they say

A7M

A boat beside a dock in the sunlight

Nothing but the water and the sunrise now

Just the lack of an open mouth

'Cause this town's just an ocean now

[Chorus]

E

Bad, I miss this place, your head and your heart

A7M

And my dad still tells me when they're playing your songs

Dbm

Laughing at the way, that you would say

If only, baby, there were cameras in the traffic lights

They'd make me a star

E

They'd make me a star

[Post-Chorus]

E

I wanna go to Maine

E

I wanna go to Maine, oh

[Chorus]

E

Bad, I miss this place, your head and your heart

A7M

And my dad still tells me when they're playing your songs

Dbm

Laughing at the way, that you would say

If only, baby, there were cameras in the traffic lights

They'd make me a star

E

They'd make me a star

[Post-Chorus]

E

I wanna go to Maine

E

I wanna go to Maine, oh

[Outro] - B NGL E STRUM ALL CHORDS

E

Tell me, lover

Once you've had your change of heart

E

'Cause we're no more than the fossils

On Crescent Beach State Park

A7M

And we used to sing along to church bells on sundays

And can you even hear 'em from the subway now?

N.c

And I hope that we make you proud
