

Noah Kahan - The View Between Villages

tom:

Am

[Primeira Parte]

Am
Air in my lungs
F C G
Till the road begins
Am
As the last of the bugs
F C G
Leave their homes again
Am F C G
And I'm splitting the road down the middle
Am F C G
For a minute, the world seems so simple

[Segunda Parte]

Am F
Feel the rush of my blood
C G
I'm seventeen again
Am F
I am not scared of death
C G
I got dreams again
Am F C G
It's just me and the curve of the valley
Am F C G
And there is meaning on Earth, I am happy

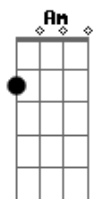

[Interlude]

Am
Oh, oh, oh
F
Oh, oh, oh
C
Oh, oh, oh
G
Oh, oh, oh

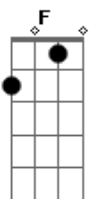

[Refrão]

Am F
Passed Alger Brook road, I'm over the bridge

C G
I'm a minute from home, but I feel so far from it
Am F
The death of my dog, the stretch of my skin
C G
It's all washing over me, I'm angry again
Am F
The things that I lost here, the people I knew
C G
They got me surrounded for a mile or two

Am F
The car's in reverse, I'm gripping the wheel
C G
I'm back between villages, and everything's still

[Interlude]

Am
Oh, oh, oh
F
Oh, oh, oh
C
Oh, oh, oh
G
Oh, oh, oh
