Give me a sign that you hear me call, you just pass me by
The colours around me are fading away
And I'll be waiting, come what may Followed you now to the end of the world and wait outside your
