C Sail on
C Am G
F2
Tell the girl behind the counter that I loved her once, but soon I must be gone
C Sail on
C Am G
C C Am
Tell the world I?m gonna miss them, but I?ve gone to find the place where I belong

G
When you make up your mind
F2 C C
Am
I?ll tell you all my secrets as we slip between the city streets tonight

G
When you say your goodbyes
F2 C C
Don?t let them see the tears that sparkle in your eyes

Am G
While you?re sick and tired, of feeling sorry for yourself
F2 C C
Life will chew you up and spit you out, and put you on the shelf
Am G
You will wake up every morning, expecting to be free
F2
You?ve gotta float on

C Sail on

Our time is on loan

F2 C C
Am
All the hopes and dreams you had were left behind, and taken by the storm
G
It won?t be long
F2 C C
And all the pain that?s in your life will soon be gone
Am G
While you?re sick and tired, of feeling sorry for yourself
F2 C C
Life will chew you up and spit you out, and put you on the shelf
Am G
You awoke a million times, you were expecting to be free
F2
You?ve gotta float on, outta here, you and I

C
Will sail on
