

Noel Gallagher - Sail On

```
Tom: Db
                                                               Am
                                                               All the hopes and dreams you had were left behind, and taken
m (forma dos acordes no tom de Am ) Capostraste na 4º casa
                                                               by the storm
Intro: Am G F2 C C
       Am G F2
                                                                It won?t be long
                                                                   F2
    С
Sail on
Tell the girl behind the counter that I loved her once, but soon I must be gone
                                                                shelf
Sail on
C
      Am
     C Am
                                                                            F2
Tell the world I?m gonna miss them, but I?ve gone to find the place where I belong
When you make up your mind
                                                               Will sail on
    F2
                                                                                                     G
                                                               C
                                                                      Am
                                                               F2
I?ll tell you all my secrets as we slip between the city streets tonight
                                                                soon I must be gone
                                                               Sail on
When you say your goodbyes
    F2
Don?t let them see the tears that sparkle in your eyes
                                                                F2
                                                               place where I belong
While you?re sick and tired, of feeling sorry for yourself
                                                                Sail on
Life will chew you up and spit you out, and put you on the G
                                                                F2
You will wake up every morning, expecting to be free
                                                                soon I must be gone
            F2
You?ve gotta float on Sail on
    C Sail on
                                                               place where I belong
F2
Tell the girl behind the counter that I loved her once, but Sail on
soon I must be gone
                                                                                                     G
                                                               F2
Sail on
      C Am
                                                                soon I must be gone
Tell the world I?m gonna miss them, but I?ve gone to find the Sail on
place where I belong
                                                                F2
Our time is on loan
```

Acordes

```
And all the pain that?s in your life will soon be gone
While you?re sick and tired, of feeling sorry for yourself
Life will chew you up and spit you out, and put you on the
You awoke a million times, you were expecting to be free
You?ve gotta float on, outta here, you and I
Tell the girl behind the counter that I loved her once, but Tell the world I?m gonna miss them, but I?ve gone to find the Tell the girl behind the counter that I loved her once, but Tell the world I?m gonna miss them, but I?ve gone to find the Tell the girl behind the counter that I loved her once, but Tell the world I?m gonna miss them, but I?ve gone to find the
```

place where I belong