Nofx - Best God In Show

```
Tom: G
                                                                Without DNA testing, would you believe virgin birth
Intro:
                                                                Refrão:
Guitarra Base
                                                                                      D
                                                                                                      G
                                                                And I find its getting painful to put up
                                                                    С
                                                                                     D
                                                                                             Em
                                                                With grown adults who actually believe
VERSO 1
                                                                  C
                                                                               D
G D C
Ive no consideration, zero mutual respect
               D
                                                                In Unicorns and Creation,
                                                                   G
                                                                                           Em
                                                                and God always takes their side
G
                  Em
                                   С
For billions who suffer from , rational thought neglect
                                                                              С
                                                                                      D
                                                                Thats when my innocent jabbing turns snide
G
                    D
                                     C
I dont wanna waste a sentence, I dont want a convert-sation

G Em C D

Thats gonna end in disdain, disbelief and aggravation
                                                                Intro: Riff
                                                                VERSE:
                                                                                  D
                                                                                        С
                                                                G
                                                                Thank God for the Grammy, thank God for the touchdown
Refrão:
                                                                                     Em C
                       D
                                      G
                                                                G
                                                                                                       D
And I find its getting harder to hang out
                                                                Thank God for blowing up the enemy's sacred ground
                     D
                                   Fm
                                                                G
                                                                            D
                                                                                             C
With grown adults who actually believe
                                                                So how am I supposed to take anything you say seriously?
                   D
                                                                G
                                                                                  Em
In Santa Claus and Noah's Ark
                                                                When youve swapped free will for faith, hope and pre-destiny
G
                          Em
and that their god is the best Refrão:
                                                                        C
                                                                                  D
C D G
My distaste has turned into detest
               D
                                                                                                  G
                                                                And its getting agonizing to hang out
Intro: Riff
                                                                                  D
                                                                                                 Em
                                                                With grown adults who actually believe
VERS0 2
                                                                            D
                    D
                                                                Mythology and history
                       С
G
Who would read a 2000 year old medical journal
                                                                                 Em
                                                                    G
                                                                trump physics and science
                  Em
                                                D
                               С
Techniques for bloodletting,
                                advice on Trichinosis
                                                                               D
                                                                  C
                                                                                               G
                                                                My aversion has turned to abhorrence
G
               D
                                with a map of a flat earth
                                                                Intro: Riff
Would you navigate the globe
G
           Em
                     С
                                                D
```

Acordes

