

Novembersky - Broken Like Pieces

Tom: G

Intro: C G

It's like I'm missing you
 And there's no one around
 I don't know how to get to you
 And the rain starts to fall down on me
 You promised me you'd be there
 I told you that I could be strong
 Listen to this song then I'm right there
 How could you forget my love?
 But now the innocence is gone
 I wish I could hear the phone
 Ringing by my side
 Hearing your voice through my heart
 Broken like pieces
 All the hope now is gone
 You were the only one who gave up on our love
 Even when I tried so hard to keep on
 I'm missing your kisses
 I need you back home

But honey, why don't you stop denying my existence?
 Then you're never gonna stop feeling alone
 I've given my heart
 I've given my soul
 We just fell apart
 I wrote you a song
 Broken like pieces
 All the hope now is gone
 You were the only one who gave up on our love
 Even when I tried so hard to keep on
 I'm missing your kisses
 I need you back home
 But honey, why don't you stop denying my existence?
 Then you're never gonna stop feeling alone
 I've given my heart
 And I've given you my soul
 We both t fell apart
 I just wrote this a song
