

Ocean Alley - Man You Were Looking For

tom:

Em

Well I'll be on my way
This is what she told me, told me
That I've got to much on my plate
Baby you don't know me, know me
So why am I afraid
To be the one who asks the questions
I'm looking for directions
Sorta hoping you'd explain

C Bm B7
How to be the man that you were looking
Man your were looking for
How to be the man that you were looking for

Em G
I think you thought this was a game
But the rules are there for breaking, breaking
So I guess I am to blame
That's why my heart is aching, aching
While my bodies numb

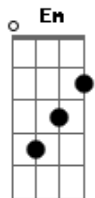

C
I'll continue looking for the answer
Your love is like a cancer
And I hope its not to late

C Bm B7
To be the man that you were looking
Man your were looking for
How to be the man that you were looking for
How to be the man that you were looking for

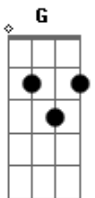

Em Am
Running, always running
Away
All I need, is for you to stay
Running, always running
Away
All I need, is for you to say

Em G C
That I'm the Man your were looking for
How to be the man that you were looking for
How to be the man that you were looking for
How to be the man that you were looking for
