Ofenbach - You Don't Know Me (Feat. Brodie Barclay)

```
                              tom:
                     G
Intro: G  D  Em   C

   G
Take me to the place I used to run
      D
Remember the house where I was born
         Em
Baby, you don't know me
              C
My baby, you don't know
                 G
I'll show you all the stars I used to hide
        D
No one never seemed to realize
                Em
But baby, you will know me
                C
But baby, you will know

( G  D )

         Em
Baby, you don't know
         C
Baby, you don't know

( G  D )

         Em
Baby, you don't know
         C
Baby, you don't know
```
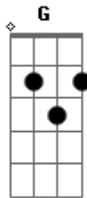

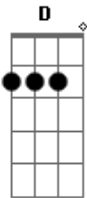

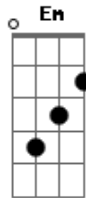

```
                      G
Take me to the place I used to run
         D
Remember the house where I was born
               Em
Baby, you don't know me
              C
Baby, you don't know
                       G
I'll show you all the stars I used to hide
            D
No one never seemed to realize
                Em
But baby, you will know me
                 C
But baby, you will know
                Em
But baby, you will know me
                 C
But baby, you will know

( G  D )

               Em
Baby, you don't know
               C
Baby, you don't know
G  D
               Em
Baby, you don't know
               C
Baby, you don't know
```
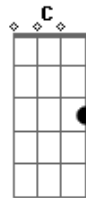

Acordes