Gb There was a time, looking through myself
E Wanting to pretend

If I escaped, I could fill myself
E I don't think you can

Been far and wide
E But that hole inside

Never really leaves

When I went away, what I really left
E Left behind was me

It's telling me
(B Db D Db E) E
To be on my way home

Gb 000,000 Million miles away
Gb 000,000 Million miles away
Gb I can't stay I can't stay
000,000 Million miles away

(Gb A E)

Gb Each passing day, every passing face

E Seems like such a blur Gb

I long to be
A Home, silently

E Lying next to her Gb

Just to get back, by her side is all
