I'm not the one who made the world what it is today

I'm not the one who caused the problems started long ago

C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am

But now I deal with all the consequence that troubles our times

I carry on and never once have even questioned why

But the weight of the world is on my shoulders

We 're not the ones who leave the homeless in the streets at night

We're not the ones who've kept minorities and women down

Still we grow and then the problems they become our own

We carry on without even realizing why

But the weight of the world is on our shoulders

We're not the ones pollution blackened our skies and ruined our streams

C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am

We're not the ones who made the nuclear bombs that threaten our lives

C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am

We're not the ones who let the children starve in faraway lands

C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am C Dm Am

We're not the ones who made the streets unsafe to walk at night

And even if we try and not become so overwhelmed

And if we make some contribution to the plight we see

Still our descendants will inherit the mistakes we made

They'll suffer just the same as we and never wonder why
