

Oficina G3 - Unconditional

Tom: C

(intro 2x) D C Dm G

I changed the view

From below so your eyes can see

I tried to speak

But the words, you could not hear

Through my only son

I touched the world to change your life within

I'm at the door, go on, let me in

I believe in you

Hear my voice

I am here right now

My love is unconditional

I want the sun to shine again, a start of a new day

Let my light shine, my ways be your ways this time

I will always be here for you, waiting for you

I will not let go, cause I want to show, your heart is mine

I believe in you

Hear my voice

I am here right now

My love is unconditional

How long will it take?

The cross, the proof I gave

I paid the price for you

Receive me, amazing love you take

I believe in you

Hear my voice

I am here right now

My love is unconditional...
