

Olivia Newton-John - Changes

Tom: Bb

Verse1:

Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
We said a million times we'd change,
Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
Can't bring myself to say those words again.

Eb F
A piper never changes tune,
Eb Bb
You can't grow apples on the moon.

Verse2:

Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
The hurtful things we say still penetrate,
Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
And whispered sorrys always come too late.
Eb F
Then the damage has been done,
Eb Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
What er we going to tell our son.

Chorus:

Eb Bb
I want to spare his broken heart.
Eb Bb
Brek it gently that we'll live apart
F Eb
Don't know the proper way to say
Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
He won't be seeing daddy ev'ry day.

Verse3:

Those weekly outings never work you know,
Buying gifts and candy picture shows.
They can't replace the man around,
Your voice, your touch, your manly sound.

Verse4:

I guess the trouble is I love you still,
And if it comes to that I always will.
No, please don't cry, it's just too late
Now hurry on, she's waiting at the gate
