Verse1:

Dm G7sus4 G7 C
 I try to be patient, I try not to moan.
 A7 Dm G7sus4 G7 C C7
 But it's driving me crazy try'ng to live here alone.
 F Gb7 C Bb
 My conversation gets nowhere when I talk to myself.
 A7 D7sus4 D7 D7sus4 D7 G7sus4 G7
 I've lost my sense of humor somewhere here on the shelf.

Chorus:

C Am
 The moon is wasting its shine
 Dm G7sus4 G7
 Shining on me until I see you again.
 Em A7
 I won't be out in the moonlight
 F G7sus4 G7
 And I'll be sleeping by ten.
 C Am
 The birds are wasting their song
 Dm G7sus4 G7
 Singing to me until I'm waking with you.

Em A7
 Until you're back in my arms, dear,
 F G7 C
 The birds will have to find something better to do.

[Riff]

Verse2:

A shoulder to cry on would make me feel fine.
 But it's not much comfort when I'm crying all night.
 Friends and relations are running out of patience with me.
 I keep myself to myself but I'm no company.

Chorus:

C Am
 The moon is wasting its shine
 Dm G7sus4 G7
 Shining on me until I see you again.
 Em A7
 I won't be out in the moonlight
 F G7sus4 G7
 And I'll be sleeping by ten.
 C Am
 The birds are wasting their song
 Dm G7sus4 G7
 Singing to me until I'm waking with you.
 Em A7
 Until you're back in my arms, dear,
 F G7 C
 The birds will have to find something better to do.
 C A7
 So baby, till you're back in my arms
 F G7 C
 The birds will have to find something better to do.
