

Olivia Olson - Anyway

Tom: G

I am not the best with sitting still, I'm restless

My mind gets so hectic and down

My patience's getting tested

And still, you acted reckless

I know you were messing around

That's alright, that's okay

I never loved you anyway

It's alright

It's okay to say you never loved me anyway

All the feels I'm feeling were never that appealing

I was clearly dealing with doubt

So no more fake concealing

I'm ready and revealing

I hope you are hearing me loud

That's alright, that's okay

You never loved me anyway

If you go, I'm okay to stay

Cause I never loved you anyway

It was a shot in the dark

It was a plot that fell apart

It absolutely, truly's really not a broken heart

It's alright, it's okay

I know that there will come a day when

I'm alright, I'm okay to say (I'm okay, I'm okay)

I never loved you anyway

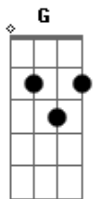

That's alright, that's okay

I never loved you anyway

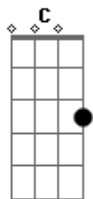

It's alright, it's okay to say

I never loved you anyway
