

Olivia Rodrigo - Begged

tom:

Ab (forma dos acordes no tom de G)

Capostrate na 1ª casa

All that I want

Is to know undoubtably

That you just have eyes for me
Could you make it clear?

All that I want

Is to sit here, silently

And watch movies on TV

What a shame you're not here

Here to witness my devotion

And my endless well of needs

Im an anchor in the ocean

You know, I could never leave

So i'm patient you're learning

Pretend it's not hurting

Ooooooh

Cause they say it's a virtue

To not let good love slip away (way)

So i'm cool and forgiving

I'll take what you're giving

Oooooooh

But nothing's quite enough

When I know that to get it I begged

Yeah, to get it I begged

And I have this thought

When I lay in bed at night

I feel trapped inside my life
Is it a normal thing

To fight back the waves

Of a static lovers dread

I'm overwhelmed, i'm underfed
And yet I still cling (cling)

Cling to hope like snow on mountains

Careless words melt it away

I'm a penny in a fountain

Just waiting on my luck to change

So i'm patient you're learning

Pretend it's not hurting

Ooooooh

Cause they say it's a virtue

To not let good love slip away (way)

So i'm cool and forgiving
I'll take what you're giving

Oooooooh

But nothing's quite enough

When I know that to get it I begged

Yeah, to get it I begged
