One Direction - Drag Me Down

Tom: B
Intro: B D A G

B                     D                            A
I've got fire for a heart, I'm not scared of the dark
                                G
You've never seen it look so easy
B                 D                         A
I got a river for a soul and baby you're a boat
                          G
Baby, you're my only reason

B                     D                        A
If I didn't have you there would be nothing left
                                          G
The shell of a man that could never be his best
B                     D                   A
If I didn't have you I'd never see the sun
                              G
You taught me how to be someone, yeah

Refrão:
B             D                      A                 G
All my life you stood by me when no one else was ever behind
me
B         D                  A
All these lights that can't blind me
                         G
With your love, nobody can drag me down

B             D                      A                 G
All my life you stood by me when no one else was ever behind
me
B         D                  A
All these lights that can't blind me
                         G
With your love, nobody can drag me down

B  D  A
Nobody, nobody
              G
Nobody can drag me down
B  D  A
Nobody, nobody
              G
Nobody can drag me down

B                     D                            A
I've got fire for a heart, I'm not scared of the dark
                                G

You've never seen it look so easy
B                      D                         A
I got a river for a soul and baby you're a bow
                            G
And baby you're my only reason

B                 D                            A
If I didn't have you there would be nothing left
                                          G
The shell of a man that could never be his best
B                     D                   A
If I didn't have you I'd never see the sun
                              G
You taught me how to be someone, yeah
