

One Direction - I Shouldve Kissed You

What am I gonna do?
Intro: G D Em C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         And all my friends say
Verse 1:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          That i'm punching over my weight
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         But in your eyes I
I keep playing inside my head
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Saw how you were looking at me
All that you said to me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         It's all that I can think about, oh
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         You're all that I can think about
I lie away just to convince myself
This wasn't just a dream
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Is your heart taken?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Is there somebody else on your mind?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm so sorry, I'm so confused
Cause you were right here
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Just tell me, am I out of time?
And I should've taken the chance
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Is your heart breakin?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         How do you feel about me now?
                                              Em
But I got so scared
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I can't believe I let you walk away
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         When, when I Should Have Kissed You
And I lost the moment again
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
                                                                                                                                                                  Fm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
     It's all that I can think about, oh
You're all that I can think about
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Bridge:
Chorus:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         When you stood there
Is your heart taken?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Just a heartbeat away
Is there somebody else on your mind?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         When we were dancing
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         And you looked up at me
I'm so sorry, I'm so confused
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          If I had known that
Just tell me, am I out of time?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         That i'd be feeling this way
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         If I could replay
Is your heart breaking?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I would have never let you go
How do you feel about me now?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         No, oh...
                                               Fm
I can't believe I let you walk away
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Fm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Never have let you go...
                          when I Should Have Kissed You
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Am I out of time?
I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Same as other chorus
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Chorus:
I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Is your heart taken?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Is there somebody else on your mind?
I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I'm so sorry, i'm so confused % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(

I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Is your heart breakin?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         How do you feel about me now?
Same as previous
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I can't believe I let you walk away
Verse 2:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         When, when I Should Have Kissed You
Every morning when I leave my house
I always look for you, yeah
I see you everytime I close my eyes
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you I should, I should oh, I should have kissed you
