

One Direction - Over Again

Intro: 2x: Bm G D A
                                                               If you're pretending from the start
                                                               Like this, with a tight grip, then my kiss
Verse 1:
                                                               Can mend your broken heart
Said I'd never leave her cause her hands fit like my t-shirt
                                                                           D
Tounge tied over three words, cursed
                                                               I might miss everything you said to me
Running over thoughts that make my feet hurt
                                                               And I could lend you broken parts
Bodies intertwined with her lips
                                                               That might fit like this
                                                                           Bm
Now she's feeling so low since she went solo
                                                               And I would give you all my heart
                                                                           Α
Hole the middle of my heart like a polo
                                                                So we could start it all over again
       Bm G
                                                               Middle 8:
And it's no joke to me
                                                               You'll never know how to make it on your own
So can we do it all over again?
                                                                And you'll never show weakness for letting go
Chorus 1:
            Bm
                                                               I guess you're still hurt if this is over
If you're pretending from the start
                                                               But do you really want to be alone?
Like this, with a tight grip, then my kiss
                                                               Chorus 3:
Can mend your broken heart
                                                                          Bm
                                                               If you're pretending from the start
I might miss everything you said to me \,
                                                               Like this, with a tight grip, then my kiss
            Bm
And I could lend you broken parts
                                                               Can mend your broken heart
That might fit like this
                                                               I might miss everything you said to me
            Rm
And I would give you all my heart
                                                                           Bm
                                                               And I could lend you broken parts
 So we could start it all over again
                                                               That might fit like this
                                                                           Rm
                                                              And I would give you all my heart
Can we take the same road? Two days in the same clothes
                                                                So we could start it all over again
And I know just what she'll say if I can make all this pain go
                                                               Chorus 4:
Can we stop this for a minute?
                                                                          Bm
                                                               If you're pretending from the start
You know, I can tell that your heart isn't in it, or with it
                                                               Like this, with a tight grip, then my kiss
Tell me with your mind, body and spirit
                                                               Can mend your broken heart
                                                               I might miss everything you said to me
I can make your tears fall down like the showers that are British
                                                                           Bm
Whether we're together or apart
                                                               And I could lend you broken parts
                                                               That might fit like this
We can both remove the masks and admit that we regret it from the start
                                                                           Bm
                                                               And I would give you all my heart
Chorus 2:
                                                                So we could start it all over again
