

OneRepublic - Burning Bridges

```
Intro: Db Ebm Bbm Gb
 You and I are meant to be
Ain't no doubt about it
         Gb
No way to hide that sort of thing.
Now wait for something better
Ain't nothing better worth imagining
I, I keep on running
I'm building bridges that I know you never wanted
         Db
Look for my heart, you stole it away
Now all ever single road that I can take Listen
I want you to burn my bridges down (down)
        Db
                      Fbm
                                    Bbm
I said, I want you to burn my bridges down, down, down
          Db Ebm Bbm
Set me on fire!
Gb
You set me
          Db Ebm Bbm
Set me on fire!
You can burn my bridges down
 Send this out to sea
Send it where you wanted
           Gb
You can take your no for no or not at all
                      Ebm
There's no filling up your spaces with fictionary places
Imaginary faces they don't work at all
```
