

Orla Gartland - I Go Crazy

C

I've got no clue what you're thinking

Em

You move your hand away from mine

C

Shifty eyes and indecisions

Em

Why does this happen every time?

C

Won't somebody hold me and tell me it'll all work out

Em

Say that there's nothing to worry about now

C

Cause I'm so sick of the drama and I hate to to shout

Em

But you drag it out of me

C

Three words, two hearts, one maybe

Em

Say something before I go crazy

C

My tears, your fears, don't phase me

Em

Say something before I go crazy

C

Now

Am C

I go crazy now

C

I feel like all of this has aged me

Em

Right on the edge of 22

C

You look like you've just seen a monster

Em

Is that what I look like to you?

C

Won't somebody hold me and tell me it'll all work out

Em

Say that there's nothing to worry about now

C

Cause I'm so sick of the drama and I hate to to shout

Em

But you drag it out of me

C

Three words, two hearts, one maybe

Em

Say something before I go crazy

C

My tears, your fears, don't phase me

Em

Say something before I go crazy

C

Now

Am C

I go crazy now

C

It's only a matter of time

C

Three words, two hearts, one maybe

Em

Say something before I go crazy

C

My tears, your fears, don't phase me

Em

Say something before I go crazy

C

Now

Am C

I go crazy now
