

Over The Garden Wall - Frog's Lullaby

tom: Bb

Bb Cm
At night, when the lake, is a mirror

Dm Cm
And the moon rides the waves to the shore

D7 Gm
A single soul sets his voice singing

Cm F
Content to be slightly forlorn

Bb Cm
A song rises over the lilies

Dm Cm
Sweeps high to clear over the reeds

D7 Gm
And over the bulrushes' swaying

Cm F

To pluck at a pair of heartstrings

F Bb
Two voices now they are singing

A7 Dm
Then ten as the melody soars

Ab Gm Cm
Round the shimmering pond, all are joining in song

Cm Fm
As it carries their reverie on

Bb Cm
Over the treetops and mountains

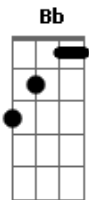

Dm Cm
Over the blackened ravines

D7 Gm
Then softly it falls by a house near a stream

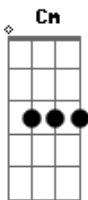

Cm F
And over the garden wall

Bb
To thee
