D        G          G       A
He doesn't fight crime or wear a cape
D        G          G    A
He doesn't read minds or levitate
D          G           G       A
But every time my world needs saving, he's my superman
D        G                   G

dad

D              G       G       A
He loves his workshop and rock and roll
D        G       G           A
He's got a hot rod and a heart of gold
D                     G               G         A
And you could say he's a man of few words, but he talks a lot within
D            G              G         A
And even though I'm a little taller, I still look up to him
[REFRÃO]

G         A        D      D
He built me a house in the arms of a tree
G        A          D        D
He taught me to drive, and to fight, and to dream
G          A        D  A Bm A
When he looks in my eyes I hope he can see
G                  A
That my dad's a hero to me

D G G A 2X

D             G       G       A
Rust-ridden fenders, and doors full of dings
D           G       G       A
Somehow he can fix about anything
D              G             G       A
I didn't think he knew how to cry till our dog died that year
D                  G          G       A
He doesn't always say I love you, but I can hear him loud and clear
