               C

         C                            Em
Pray for me, father, for I know not what I do
C                         Em
I am the monster, yeah,?you?must have read?the news
C                           Em
Don't know how it started,?but I know just how it ends
C                          Em
Pray for me, father,?'cause?I'm?runnin' out of?friends

F                D
I'm runnin' out?of time forever
F                          D
I know I'm someone that they won't remember

C                            Em
What will I think of when I speak my final words?
C                          Em
What will it feel like? And I wonder if it hurts
C                          Em
I've just got a mile and I can taste the kiss of death
C                        Em
What will I think of when I take my final breath?

F                D
