One day a little girl came after me
She said she had to have an interview A7
A pencil and a paper in her hand
Those beautiful blue eyes open to life D7
And looked into my eyes with friendly Love
To ask a question:Happiness? What is it?

And once again those beautiful blue eyes
Were asking me happiness? What is it?

As soon as I had finished every word
She kept on looking at her little book

And kissed me her good bye with tender mood
