

Brad Paisley - Waitin' On a Woman

tom:

Intro: C

G
Sittin' on a bench at West Town Mall

C
He sat down in his overalls and asked me

You waitin' on a woman

G
I nodded yeah and said how 'bout you

C
He said son since nineteen fifty-two I've been

Waitin' on a woman

Am
When I picked her up for our first date

F
I told her I'd be there at eight

C G C
And she came down the stairs at eight-thirty

Am
She said I'm sorry that I took so long

F
Didn't like a thing that I tried on

C F C
But let me tell you son she sure looked pretty

Dm F
Yeah she'll take her time but I don't mind

C
Waitin' on a woman

G
He said the wedding took a year to plan

C
You talk about an anxious man, I was nervous

Waitin' on a woman

G
And then he nudged my arm like old men do

C

And said, I'll say this about the honeymoon, it was worth it

Waitin' on a woman

Am
And I don't guess we've been anywhere

f
She hasn't made us late I swear

C G C
Sometimes she does it just 'cause she can do it

Am
Boy it's just a fact of life

F
It'll be the same with your young wife

C F C
Might as well go on and get used to it

Dm F
She'll take her time 'cause you don't mind

C
Waitin' on a woman

[Solo] G C G C

Am
I've read somewhere statistics show

F
The man's always the first to go

C G C
And that makes sense 'cause I know she won't be ready

Am
So when it finally comes my time

F
And I get to the other side

C F C
I'll find myself a bench, if they've got any

C
Waitin' on a woman

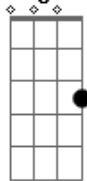

Dm F
Honey, take your time, cause I don't mind

C
Waitin' on a woman

[Final] G C G C
