Tom: D
                                                         Son of the father I adore
 Verso 1:
                                                         I love you lord, You're all I have
                Bm
Come before before you now
                                                                     G
                                                         You're all I ever really want
                                                         Bm A
Your face is all I seek
And I lay my burdens down
