Tripped over your fragile ego

I slipped the whole way
Gbm F
Right into the web you'd woven

A2 A A2
And you never said
F G
That you meant to save someone

Somebody just like me

And you never told me
F G
You wanted to love someone
Gm
Somebody just like me

You locked all the doors
You thought it was safer that way
You put up a wall
And now your whole world is caving

You swallow, your bright as

Push you away

And now your drowing in the ways
